

EEOC
U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

The U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP), the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and the Women's Bureau (WB) proudly invite you to attend our upcoming virtual information session.

“Closing Gender and Racial Wage Gaps.”

Join our training/informational session as each Agency discusses The White House Commitment to Advancing Pay Equity and Support Economic Security. How closing gender and racial wage gaps are essential to building an equitable economy and addressing the barriers that have long hampered women and minorities. Understand the requirements under Executive Order 13665 and Equal Pay Act.

Please join us as we provide you with some valuable information.

This virtual event is free with limited space.

When: June 22, 2022

Time: 1-3pm (Eastern Standard Time)

Please complete your registration for the event using the (Eventbrite link): <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/bridging-the-gap-pay-equity-event-tickets-341811416147>. Upon registration, you will receive information on how to join the event via Microsoft Teams. Please feel free to submit any questions ahead of time to Marlene Williams at Williams.Marlene@dol.gov.